

Application for Associate Membership

Community members, friends and professionals with an interest in Cri du Chat syndrome and who support the purposes of the group are invited to join the group as associate members. Parents, relatives and carers of individuals with Cri du Chat syndrome and adults with Cri du Chat syndrome are encouraged to apply for full membership.

Membership to the Cri du Chat Support Group Limited is currently free. We encourage consideration of a tax-deductible donation to support group running costs, family events, and other group initiatives that aim to support our families.
